End of Term 5
Wednesday 4th June
Beginning of Term 6

Hi er a Themes for the Term

This term we will be looking at wheels, rolling and spinning and hopefully spending lots of time outside with the ride-on toys and the tyres.

We will then go on to explore traditional tales including 'The Gingerbread Man' and 'Jack and the Beanstalk'.

On Wednesday 30th April at 3pm you are invited to see us 'walk through' a story with the Reception Classes. This session will be the beginning of our transition work with the older children in the class.

Cake Sale

We will be holding a cake sale to raise money to develop the Nursery garden. We will be selling raffle tickets in school to win a celebration Easter cake for the week before the sale (if you would like to help sell tickets in the playground before or after school please let us know). Please send your child into school with a pack of cakes, biscuits or doughnuts on our cake sale morning (they can be bought or homemade) and we will be selling them from 3pm (again any help you can offer with this would be great).

Sun Cream and Hats

As the warmer weather hopefully begins we will be spending more and more time outside. Please can you send your child in with sun cream applied. Your child will also need a named sun hat. Water is available at all times but if you would prefer to send in a drink please ensure it is in an appropriate bottle and clearly labelled. Don't forget to take it home at the end of the session.

One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.
