In school council they discuss if KS2 needed a friend ship stop. They decided that a friend ship bench would be much better and if one was to be on the play ground and field. They decided that instead of a new bench they could use one of the ones under the shelter in the junior play ground the school council members are going to talk in class on where to put the one on the field. They also wanted to paint the bench bright colours to stand out. They also discussed the charities and which to pick, the class are going to have a vote and then the school council will decide which charity that we will support this year as a school. The lower KS1 school council will remind their class' about the friend ship stop on the KS1 playground.
